BODY OF DEAD MAN FOUND IN RIVER

Foul Play Suspected. Police are Investigating the Case.

Special to the Eagle.
Texarkana, April 6.—The body of James Works, aged twenty-one, was found in Sulphur river near here early this morning by Clarence Grimes, en-ginner of a gasoline launch. Works was seen by friends yesterday, who observed nothing wrong with him. The police believe he met with foul play and an investigation will be made.

FARMER SHOT WIFE.
Special to the Eagle.
Haskell, April 6.—J. A. Parr, a farmer, living one mile south of Haskell, early this morning shot his wife through the heart, killing her instantly. Parr claims that it was accidental. He says he had been out wolf hunting and when he returned home, in effecting the shells from the gun, one of them exploded with the result stated.

THROAT CUT SUNDAY. DIED THIS MORNING.
Special to the Eagle.
Ennis, Texas, April 6.—H. S. Juniper, the Houston and Texas Central railroad conductor whose throat was slashed by an unknown robber Sunday, died here today. The burglar used a razor to inflict the fatal wound. The officers claim to have no clue. One supposed clue was followed to Fort Worth and exploited without result.

EVANGELISTS HAVE ARRIVED.

Rev. Hale and His Singer, Prof. Hunt, Are Now in Bryan for Revival at Baptist Church.

Rev. George L. Hale, of Warrensburg, Mo., and his singer, Prof. J. M. Hunt, arrived this afternoon and will conduct the service in the revival now in progress at the First Baptist church.

Rev. Hale, the evangelist, who will do the preaching is pastor of the Rev. Geo. L. Hale.

Baptist church at Warrensburg, which is the college town of Missouri. Fully fifteen hundred students come to Warrensburg from other towns and Rev. Hale is doing a grand work there.

He is a strong southerner and democrat and in thorough accord and sympathy with the South and its traditions. He has been associated with Dr. Weaver in a number of meetings, and while a vigorous preacher against the strongholds of Satan, is at the same time sweet-spirited, and a man of deep and tender feeling. He is an excellent preacher, and his sermons are soulful, uplifting and his sermons Prof. Hunt, who accompanies Rev. Hale, is one of the best known gospel singers in the country. He is no stranger in Texas, having been in meetings in this state in many places, with the late Maj. Penn. He is not only a great singer, but is a musical composer of ability. He was associated with Major Penn in the publication of the song book, "Harvest Bells." Mr. Hunt desires a large choir for the meeting in this city and the singers of all the churches are cordially and earnestly invited to help with the music.

The Pastor extends an invitation and request to all the christian people of the city, to not only attend the meeting, but to take part in it and help to make it a great campaign for the Lord. Services will be held each day from 10 to 11 o'clock and at 7:45 at night.

The evangelist is being entertained in the home of the pastor, and the singer with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Boatwright.

The sermon last night by Rev. Pipkin was on the subject of "Growth in Grace," and was a tender, helpful message for all who heard it. Rev. Pipkin left last night for his home at Huntsville.

MC'CUE MURDER CASE FINISHED

End of Trial for an Atrocious Crime. Parents of Defendant and Mother of Murdered Man in Court.

Special to the Eagle.
Ft. Worth, Texas, April 6.—The trial of the famous McCue murder case will close tonight. The arguments of counsel on both sides will be finished this afternoon. Judge Simmons will then deliver his charge and the jury will then retire to decide McCue's fate.

This case has attracted wide interest because of the circumstances.

Earl Mabrey, a country boy came to Dallas and it was learned that he had some money. To get this he was enticed into the outskirts of the city one night and murdered by being struck on the head with a club and stabbed seventeen times. The parents of the defendant are with him in the courtroom today. The mother of the murdered boy is also in attendance.

POINT AGAINST HASKELL.

Special to the Eagle.
Tulsa, Okla., April 6.—The government won a point today in the cases against Governor Haskell and six others charged with obtaining lands fraudulently, when Judge Marshall sustained the objection by the prosecution to admission as evidence, the statements of Officer Richard Taylor made before the grand jury, by which the accused were indicted.

SUICIDE AT SAN ANTONIO.

Special to the Eagle.
